

COMMUNITY-BASED GLOBAL LEARNING IN LATIN AMERICA

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Our mission is to enrich the traveler and the host by maximizing positive cultural and knowledge exchange and generating revenue for host communities.

AFFORDABLE

Our programs take place in Latin America because of its proximity and affordability. Furthermore, we keep overhead low to be able to host students of all economic backgrounds.

COMMUNITY-BASED

Rural locations are often safer than cities and provide a more immersive cultural experience that stimulates deep reflection.

LEARN FROM TRAVEL

FLEXIBLE

We'll work closely to develop your dream faculty- or student-led program.

We are not tied to any facilities or offices and provide field-based programs in any rural or urban area in Latin America.

Programs are available year-round. Most are 1-3 weeks long.

Broad range of activities include: formal instruction, service work, site visits, in-depth conversations, and educational recreation.

Support where you need it: design, planning, recruitment, and pre-departure orientation.

From rural homestays to 4-star hotels, lodging to suit your budget.

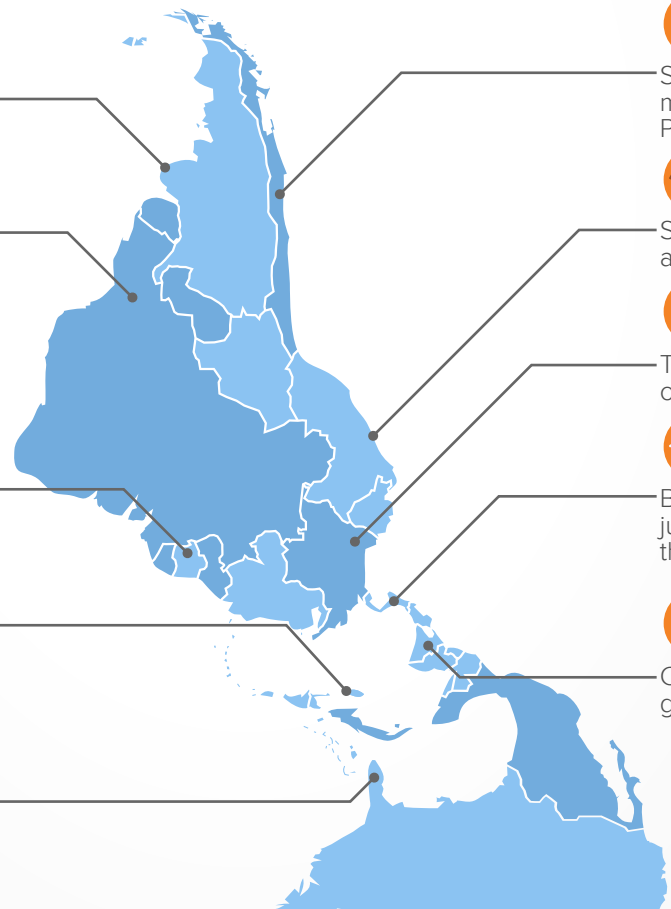

Broad range of themes spanning the college major spectrum.

Our guide and translator will accompany your group and provide 24-hour on-location support.

CHANGE YOUR STUDENTS' PERSPECTIVE WITH CHALLENGING PROGRAMS IN UNIQUE LOCATIONS

Tango, theater, and visual arts in Buenos Aires

Spirituality and herbal medicine with the Mapuche People in Chile

Permaculture and capoeira tradition in the African diaspora in Brazil

Service learning and surfing in Peru

Diversity and economic development in Suriname

The business and tradition of flowers in Colombia

History of slavery and freedom in the Maroon Towns of Jamaica

Biodiversity, commerce, and justice at the crossroads of the world in Panama

Environmental conservation and cultural heritage with the Miccosukee Tribe in the Everglades

Coffee cooperatives and gender equality in Nicaragua

